Part 3. Reading

Time: 30 minutes

Task 1

Read the article. Use five of the words from the box to complete the following article about smiling. Choose an appropriate singular or plural form for each word.

a) eyebrow	e) dimple	f) mouth
b) eye	d) cheek	g) tooth
c) wrinkle

According to research from the USA, we smile for many reasons. There is the listener response smile. When two people are having a conversation, the listener smiles to encourage the speaker. There is the polite smile. This is the sort of smile you make when your aunt gives you a horrible birthday present.

There is the miserable smile. For example, when you go to the dentist, and he tells you that you need to have a 1) _____ taken out.

Very often, these social smiles are not real: they are frequently “fake” smiles. Fake smiles are easy to do – you just have to tighten the muscles in your 2) _____.

But there’s only one smile that is the smile of true enjoyment. This smile is extremely hard to fake. It involves the muscles at the corners of the 3) _____ and the muscles around the eyes.

When someone gives a true smile, the 4) _____ get smaller, and you see little wrinkles around the edge. The eyebrows go up and on some people, 5) _____ appear in their cheeks.

The genuine smile of enjoyment not only makes us feel good, but it makes others feel good too.

Task 2

Read the article below and match one of the headings (a-d) with each paragraph (6-9).

- a) Shy b) Cheeky c) Confident d) Sociable

6. _____

This is the smile of a joker. The raised eyebrows and dimples in the cheeks show a good sense of humour and a warm personality. This sort of person is often a bit of a rebel – they have no respect for authority.

7. _____

The wide, toothy smile shows that the person is easygoing and friendly. They enjoy being in a crowd and are good fun to go out with. They’re always looking for the next party.

8. _____

The smile is in the eyes. This is a sensitive person, and a loyal friend. This sort of person thinks before they speak and is a good listener. They don’t like being the centre of attention in a crowd.

9. _____

This is a smile that says, “I know it all.” This type of person is very sure of themselves. They like good argument, and they usually win. They’re hard-working and very ambitious. And they can be quite bossy.
