

Всероссийская олимпиада школьников по английскому языку

2023/2024

Муниципальный этап

9-11 классы

Answer sheet

Part 2.

Listening 11

Task 1 / Task 2

Speaker 1	1 E	Speaker 1	6 D
Speaker 2	2 H	Speaker 2	7 C
Speaker 3	3 F	Speaker 3	8 F
Speaker 4	4 B	Speaker 4	9 G
Speaker 5	5 C	Speaker 5	10 A

Task 3

11	12	13	14	15
country	stamps	dolls	video	anecdotes

Part 3. Reading 14

Task 1

1	2	3	4	5	6
D	C	F	E	A	B

Task 2

7	8	9	10
b	d	a	c

Task 3

11	12	13	14	15
d	a	e	c	b

Task 4

16	17	18	19	20
T	F	T	F	T

Part 4. Use of English 15

Task 1

1	2	3	4	5
c	c	B	b	B

Task 2

6	7	8	9	10
C	k	i	a	d
11	12	13	14	15
f	g	b	e	h

Task 3

A. This week Jack is busy at work and has to run less than he used to.

- B. They decided to turn to other wise people for help.
 C. The Professor wonders why etymology is hard for me.
 D. Truth usually seems stranger than fiction.
 E. When his vision fades, piteously he cries.
 F. He explained how he reassured her.

16	17	18	19	20
Thurs	despite	unless		where

Task 4

21	22	23	24	25
piece peace	ghes quest		stares stairs	raue raue role

Всероссийская олимпиада школьников по английскому языку

2023/2024

Муниципальный этап

9-11 классы

Part 1. Writing

Time: 30 minutes

Imagine you have a chance to travel to any epoch and interview any scientist or inventor. Who would you choose and what questions would you ask.

Write 100 -150 words.

Remember to:

- make an introduction,
- express your personal ideas about a person and give reasons for your choice,
- ask him/her 2-3 questions,
- make a conclusion.

Scientist^{always} were very important for society.

However, ^{people} not all ages gave opportunities to study.

Mikhail Lomonosov ^{is} a russian scientist and writer. He ^{has} made one of the greatest contributions in our culture and science. He ^{is} good at nearly every occupation.

He ^{is} an expert in literature, ~~math~~ geology, chemistry etc.

Mikhail Vasilyevich, I'd like to ask what is your hobby?

How does such an intelligent person entertain ~~his~~ ~~own~~ himself? And

I'm interested ^{to} in your childhood and youth. ~~How~~ What were they?

What did you feel when ~~had~~ you moved to Moscow and had to starve

while getting education?

Well,

Mikhail Lomonosov is the best example of a hard-working man that made his personality on his own.

All students must be inspired by his life.

12.12

Part 2.

Listening

Time: 20 minutes

You will have one minute to read Task 1, Task 2, and Task 3.

You will hear five short extracts in which people are talking about collections they own.

Task 1 Choose from the list (A-H) how each speaker feels about their collection. Two answers are extra.	Task 2 Choose from the list (A-H) what each speaker believes. Two answers are extra.
While you listen, you must complete both tasks.
A. too exhausted to continue	A. I have an end result in mind. 5
B. determined to amuse others 4	B. My collection is putting my marriage at risk. ???
C. attached and affectionate 5	C. I only keep the collection because I have to. 2
D. happy to be different	D. It's been worth the hard work. 1
E. extremely proud 1	E. I can't afford to carry on collecting.
F. totally obsessed 3	F. People sometimes get the wrong impression.	3

G. secretly ashamed		G. I want everything I can get my hands on.	4
H. bored and indifferent	2	H. I only do it to make money.
Speaker 1	1 E	Speaker 1	6 D
Speaker 2	2 H	Speaker 2	7 C
Speaker 3	3 F	Speaker 3	8 F
Speaker 4	4 B	Speaker 4	9 G
Speaker 5	5 C	Speaker 5	10 A

Task 3

Listen and complete the sentences with one word.

11. Speaker 1 has one of the best collections in the country.

12. Speaker 2 collects stamps.

13. Speaker 3 says her dolls have all got names.

14. Speaker 4 confesses he buys anything from vinyl records to old instruments.

15. Speaker 5 collects jokes and anecdotes. anekdotes

Part 3.

Reading

Time: 30 minutes

Task 1

Read the text. Put the following main ideas (A – F) in the order they appear in the text.

- A. Soon there will be no oil to fuel cars.
- B. Cars, whether gasoline or electric powered, will always be important.
- C. Cars can cause problems.
- D. To some people, cars are more than transportation.
- E. Some environmentalists teach people how to live without cars.
- F. People in the United States need cars to go to school, to work, and to places of entertainment.

1	2	3	4	5	6
D	C	F	E	A	B

Cars: Passion or a Problem?

For some people, the car is a convenient form of transportation. But for others, the car is an exciting hobby. Some people spend their lives collecting valuable cars. Others drive them in races, including the Mille Miglia in Italy, the Carrera Panamericana in Mexico, and the world-famous Indianapolis 500. For many people, cars are more than transportation: they are the source of passion and pleasure. Yet cars can also be a source of many problems.

In 1903, Henry Ford began selling the Model T car for $825. His company, Ford Motors, was the first to produce cars in large numbers. This made the car

- a. Cars were first produced in large numbers by Ford Motors.
 - b. There are more cars than people in the world today.
 - c. Many people have jobs that are related to cars.
 - d. Two and half million cars pass through New York City each day.
8. Cars have brought us some problems.
- a. In some areas the air is no longer clean.
 - b. Travel is sometimes slow because of traffic.
 - c. Cars have made changes in the environment.
 - d. Studies show that gasoline prices are increasing.
9. The car of the future may be electric.
- a. The first electric cars were faster than gasoline-powered cars.
 - b. The first electric cars produced less pollution.
 - c. Electric cars can be used when oil is not available.
 - d. Car companies are planning to develop the electric car.
10. Cars are very important.
- a. Many people need them in their lives.
 - b. New technology is being developed because of the car.
 - c. Many famous people own valuable cars.
 - d. Cars bring us passion and excitement.

7	8	9	10
b	d	a	c

Task 3

Imagine that the following statements (11 – 15) were made by people in a newspaper article about cars. Match the statement to the person (a – e) that you think made it.

- a. The president of Ford Motors

- b. A race car driver
- c. An engineer
- d. An environmentalist
- e. A car collector

11. Who cares if it's slower? The bus gives me a chance to look out of the window at the trees.

12. The freedom to travel once belonged only to rich. Now you don't have to be rich to travel – all because of what our company did for the world.

13. Some people spend their money on nice houses. I don't care about that. I've got a real passion for what I'm doing.

14. A lot of people don't see the connection between solar power and the electric car. But the truth is that you learn something from one and use it to develop the other.

15. There's nothing like the feeling of speed and freedom that comes from driving a powerful car.

11	12	13	14	15
d	a	e	c	b

Task 4

Read the second part of the text.

New Car Technology

(Part 2)

There are plans to test new car technology on part of a freeway in San Diego, California. The cars will be driven by computers, with the help of underground magnets. The magnets will keep the cars moving along the freeway.

The cars will move at the same speed, with equal distance between each one. People will not have to drive. They will be able to read, work, or relax as their cars move down the freeway.

Read each statement below (16 – 20) and decide if it is true (T) or false (F). Use information from both parts of the text “Cars: Passion or Problem?”

- 16. The magnetic freeway may reduce the traffic problem.
- 17. There might be more pollution because of this freeway.
- 18. Electric cars will be used on the magnetic freeway.
- 19. The magnetic freeway will be popular among people who have a passion for driving.
- 20. The magnetic freeway may create new car-related jobs.

16	17	18	19	20
FT	F	T	TTT F	T

Part 4. Use of English

Time: 40 minutes

Task 1

Some sentences (1-5) are incorrect. Without changing the meaning of the text, pick the most suitable correction, if necessary.

1. The setting of a story effects the story's plot.
 - A. The sentence is fine.
 - B. effects the stories plot.
 - C. affects the story's plot.
 - D. affects the story's plots.
2. The helium-filled balloon rose in the air.
 - A. The sentence is fine.
 - B. was rising in the air.
 - C. rose into the air.
 - D. would rise in the air.
3. Valarie claims that cats made the best pets.
 - A. The sentence is fine.
 - B. could be the best pets.
 - C. make of the best friends.
 - D. make the best friends.
4. If he would revised his first draft, he would have received a better grade.
 - A. The sentence is fine.
 - B. had revised
 - C. could of revised
 - D. would revise
5. Do you know that these gloves have lay on the bureau all week?
 - A. The sentence is fine.
 - B. have laid on

C. have lain on

D. had laid on

1	2	3	4	5

Task 2

For items 6-15 find a suitable word or expression in the right column which may be used to replace a word or expression in bold in the sentences below and match them.

There is an example at the beginning (0 - a).

0. I am very busy and have too much to do at school.	a) snowed under
6. The rain is falling heavily . c	b) under a cloud
7. We could ask him to sort out the files, but he'll make it unnecessarily difficult and complicated . k	c) bucketing down
8. Peter's feeling unwell . i	d) weather
9. There was a sudden heavy fall of rain . j	e) steals my thunder
10. I don't know if we can survive this crisis without any outside help.	f) every cloud has a silver lining

11. However hopeless things might seem, there is always something positive about the situation. f	g) on cloud nine
12. They were absolutely happy when they heard the news. g	h) storm in a teacup
13. Jack left his previous job under suspicion though nothing was proved. b	i) under the weather
14. Though normally it's me who has great ideas, my sister spoils everything by doing them first and getting all the credit. e	j) downpour
15. Ann was sure the quarrel was serious but in fact it was a lot of fuss about something quite trivial. h	k) heavy weather of it

6	7	8	9	10
e	k	i	d	j
11	12	13	14	15
f	g	b	e	h

Task 3

For questions 16-20, first, find linkers and conjunctions, hidden in the sentences below (A-F). Underline these words in the answer sheet, then put them into the appropriate gaps in the paragraphs (16-20).

There is an example (0).

- A. This week Jack is busy at work and has to run less than he used to.
- B. They decided to turn to other wise people for help.
- C. The Professor wonders why etymology is hard for me.
- D. Truth usually seems stranger than fiction.
- E. When his vision fades, piteously he cries.
- F. He explained how he reassured her.

Example:

0. The decisive role will now be played by the European commission, and most probably, by the heads of state of France and Germany. It will be their job to explain to the new Greek government that they have to follow the budget discipline. Otherwise they will have to pay much more, if the country leaves Eurozone. And at least now there is financial and political support for Greece.

16. Statistically speaking, flying is 29 times safer than travelling in a car. Thousands of flights safely and routinely take off and land at airports around the globe every day. Thus fear of flying still strikes millions.

17. Tommy Thompson worked in a local chicken factory for 5 years. 'You don't feel you have a choice.' Then he volunteered a day a week at Alnwick and now works fulltime despite suffering from cerebral palsy, and loves the opportunities his job has given.

18. Many other emotional responses may become manifest during a rescue situation—pity, disgust, contempt, pride, concern, and many more. These are often exaggerated beyond all reason by the urgency and pressures of the situation, _____ lowering the efficiency of the overall operation.

19. As many as a quarter of a million people will die from alcohol abuse over the next two decades unless the Government takes the problem as seriously as it did smoking, health experts have warned.

20. How do celebrities get away with committing crimes where normal people would be sentenced to jail?

16	17	18	19	20

Task 4

Homophones are words that sound the same but are spelt differently (like weight – wait). What are the missing homophones in these pairs of sentences?

Write both words on your answer sheet.

There is an example (0).

Example:

I'm going on a diet. I've put on weight.

Please wait a minute. I won't be long.

ghost
ghost

21.

Would you like another piece of cake with your tea?

Everyone wanted the war to end and peace to begin.

22.

I didn't tell her. She ghost it herself.

We are expecting a ghost tonight, so I'm making a cake.

23.

Many of her designs went into _____ production.

I had some _____ with milk for breakfast.

24.

That man always stares at me when I go past him in the street. I don't like that.

There is no lift in here. We have to walk up the stairs.

25.

There were only ten _____ of seats in the hall so quite a lot of people had to stand.

He gave me a red _____ on Valentine's Day.

21	22	23	24	25

^{always} Scientists were very important for society. However, not all ages gave opportunities people to study. Mikhail Lomonosov was a Russian ~~is~~ scientist and writer. He made one of the greatest con

rows

row

row